BROUGHTON
INDISCREET

Dr. Hawthorne, However, Declares Well Known Minister to be Moral Hero.

COMMENDS JUDGE PARKER

Sets Splendid Example of Political Integrity—Right Preferred to Presidency.

On last Sunday morning Dr. Hawthorne, speaking from his pulpit in Grove Avenue Church, said in part:

"If Christ was profoundly interested in great questions of civil government and social reform, surely we can afford to be. The Christian who is unconcerned about the legislation and administration of the government under which he lives and the social conditions of the community of which he is a member, is very unlike his Lord and Master.

"Christians, and especially Christian ministers, should be guided by His example in their efforts to eliminate political and social evils. Christ publicly condemned classes of men, but never individuals. He said: 'Woe unto ye, Pharisees, but never 'Woe unto you, Galileans.' He hated the cruel despotism of Herod, but never pointed to him as an individual tyrant, and held him up to public reprobation and scorn. He despised the cowardice of Pilate, but did not brand him as a coward before the multitude. I have again and again called the attention of a city to corruptions in their municipal government, but I have never felt that my commission as a minister of Jesus Christ required me to name any municipal officer and denounce him as a sensualist, a trickster and a thief. The minister of the gospel who adopts such tactics in a battle for civic righteousness repudiates the example and wisdom of the divine Son of God.

"DR. BROUGHTON'S MISTAKE. "When Dr. L. G. Broughton, of Atlanta, called out from the pulpit the name of a city official and denounced him as a moral leper, he transgressed the bounds of ministerial duty and propriety, and exposed himself to a just deal of just criticism. Dr. Broughton is a man of deep convictions. He is a Christian hero. He does what he believes to be right, without regard to consequences to himself; but, like many other moral heroes, he is capable of very serious mistakes and indiscretions.

"Christ's remedy for political evils was the principles of His own everlasting gospel. With these, and with these alone, He worked to purify political government. He appealed to the moral nature of men, and before the intelligence of the world the great laws of ethical life. He knew that obedience to these laws would bring the solution of all political and social problems, the downfall of all despotism, the security of all human rights, the purification of every human home, and the elevation and happiness of every human life. Christ laid upon the consciences of men the obligation to be honest and transparent in all the circumstances of their lives. He demanded that men should be loyal to truth and virtue, even at the sacrifice of office, fortune, liberty and life. It is to me a very pleasing and inspiring fact that the virtue-loving men of all political parties in this country can point to Alton B. Parker as an illustration of that type of political integrity which cannot be seduced by any temptation. He will go down into history as one of the few men of our nation who would rather be right than President."

COMPLAINTS TO POLICE.

All Persons Who Feel Themselves Aggrieved Go to Station.

Captain Whitlock was busy at the First Station last night receiving complaints from citizens who felt themselves aggrieved.

A white man wanted to get a warrant for another man, and had forty-one cents to do so.

"What for?" asked Justice McCarthy. "I went to his house and treated him like a gentleman, and I want to get him arrested because he wanted to pitch me out."

The man was badly drunk. He didn't get a warrant.

A negro came in and asked what law there was that allowed a man to go to his neighbor's house and take a lot of furniture. It turned out that he got $102 worth of furniture on the installment plan, and paid $150 on account.

Another negro said that last Saturday he was in a whiskey when some fellow took his watch and chain. He got the watch back, and wanted the fellow to find him a chain that fitted his watch.

Still another negro man reported that Monday week ago, somebody took his pants, vest and coat, a pocket-knife and fifteen cents in money.

"If any of you all sees anything of Jim," he said, "I hope you'll let me know."

CHARTERS GRANTED.

REPUBLICANS AT WAR.

Factional Differences Reported in the Ranks of the Party.

The Republicans of Richmond will hold a city convention on July 25 to name delegates to the district convention. The district convention will nominate a candidate for Congress. There are several names under consideration in connection with the nomination of that Mr. Edgar Allan, Jr., being often heard. It is said, however, that there is a prominent business man, who has won the Republican ticket in national elections for years, who will be offered the nomination if he will accept it.

In this connection it may be stated that the old factional war between the office-holding faction and the outside group of reformers, two or three of the colored leaders of the organization faction are disputing the claims of Mr. Miles M. Williams to the leadership, claiming that his selection for that post was irregular.

Just Retaliating.

Special Officer Ralston, of the shipyard, arrested a negro boy yesterday afternoon for throwing rocks into the yards. The negro had a bad cut on his head, and said some one had thrown at him, and he was simply throwing back.

Sore Throat

Throat affections should never be neglected. Sore throat leads to Quinsy and Diphtheria. It is of vital importance to have a remedy at hand in the early stages of troubles of the throat. Many are the deaths that have resulted from a neglected Sore Throat.

CURES THIS DISEASE QUICKLY AND EFFECTIVELY.

C. A. Bryant, of Annapolis City, Md., writes: Last summer I suffered constantly with Sore Throat and had the best doctors I could get, but they gave me no relief. The first application of Hamlin's Wizard Oil gave me relief and by using it a few days I was entirely cured. A bottle of Hamlin's Wizard Oil is worth its weight in gold to any person.

Henry Wade, of Washington, La., writes, Sept. 4, 1900: My wife suffered with Sore Throat and Quinsy, and though the doctors prescribed nothing seemed to help her. I procured a bottle of Hamlin's Wizard Oil and it has done more good than anything in the world.

There is only one Wizard Oil—Hamlin's—One name in the bottle. Signature "Hamlin Bros." on wrapper. Take no substitute. 50c. and $1.00.

FULTON NEWS.

A trolley party for the benefit of the Fulton Catholic Sunday school was given last night under the direction of Mr. Thomas Ryan, superintendent of the Sunday school, to West-hampton Park. The cars, which left Donahue's Hall, at the corner of Fifth and Columbia Streets, were well filled, and a nice sum was realized.

Mr. James Hartley returned Saturday from Alexandria, where he was called to the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Lawler, who died yesterday.

The Richmond Cedar Works resumed operations yesterday morning after a suspension of work for ten days. During the holidays inventory was taken and necessary repairs to machinery done.

Ladies' Missionary Society of the Fulton Baptist Church will hold an important meeting Thursday night in the Sunday school building.

Members of the Fulton Baptist Church will hold an important business meeting to-morrow night immediately after the regular services.

The annual picnic of the Fulton Baptist Sunday school will be held at West-hampton Park, Va., on Friday.

The Builders' League of the Denny Street Methodist Episcopal Church will hold a picnic tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Leonard, No. 70 Louisiana.

Mr. W. B. Bowles, who lives at No. 410 Seventh Street, Fulton, reports that several days ago he was found in a vacant lot in the rear of McCabe's boiler shop on Seventh Street, a quantity of silverware, eleven pieces in all, including a watch, cruet and picks, and nut and pepper boxes and brushes, having engraved upon each piece the name "W. B. Bowles." Bowles will be glad to return the findings to the owner.

Ten Years for Epps.

Robert Henry Epps, the negro forger, on his own plea of "guilty," was given ten years in the penitentiary for forging the name of H. P. Jonathan to a check.

In sentencing him Judge Witt said the man was a fine fellow, but a bad criminal, as he was educated and knew better. Epps got the full extent of the law.

TUNING A PHYSICIAN.

He Got Out, and Then in Tune. If coffee has you where your nerves demand it, each morning, you have a wreck ahead sure.

Think back for a year and notice how the sick spells grow on you, instead of getting less.

You are running into nervous prostration or some kind of disease absolutely certain, and when it suddenly takes full possession you will find nothing, absolutely nothing, in drugs that will heal you. Nature demands penalty for the daily hurt to the nerve centers by coffee, and you must pay the full price.

A physician of Cornwall, Ont., says of himself: "For years coffee was to me what rum is to the toper, but I kept getting worse and worse in health. I suffered from continuous nervous twitches, insomnia, restless, miserable nights, nerves all gone. Craving for coffee was intense, but it put me lower and lower in health. Something must be done, so I tried leaving off coffee."

After using Postum Food Coffee, the first trial wife and I were both disgusted, for we were careless in buying it, but we went carefully into the subject of preparing Postum and found we had only allowed it to brew about five minutes, and that won't make good Postum. So next time it was boiled full fifteen minutes after boiling began, then served with good cream, and it was toothsome and delicious. That marked the beginning of my return to health. Now I sleep well, the old twitches has disappeared, and in short I am well again. My good wife has also been much benefited by leaving off Coffee and using Postum Food Coffee. We have abandoned the old coffee for all time." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason why so many intelligent people and physicians drink Postum in place of ordinary coffee. Postum look in each package for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

NEGRO WAS HUSTLED OUT

Nearness of Mr. Roosevelt Did Not Deter Oyster Bay Barber.

MAY APPEAL TO PRESIDENT

Incensed Blacks Think Pastor Had Right to be Shaved by White Man.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 11.—There is intense feeling among the negroes of the village because a negro clergyman was put out of a white man's barber shop here Saturday night when he insisted upon being shaved by a white barber.

It is believed by many to have been a carefully planned proceeding on the part of the negroes to give expression to the declaration of a more liberal policy toward the negroes in the Republican national platform. At any rate, the negroes say they will make an effort to have the matter laid before the President to-morrow.

The Rev. James T. Gaskin, pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, entered David Newport's barber shop last Saturday night, and said he wanted a shave.

"I'm sorry, sir, but you cannot be shaved in this shop," said Newport.

"Why not?" asked the negro.

"Because," said Newport, "your color is against you."

Gaskin turned to the patrons of the shop and asked:

"Are you gentlemen going to allow a Christian man of character and education to be treated in this way just because of his color?"

The spectators made no reply. Newport then told the preacher politely that he could not be shaved there, and asked him to leave the shop.

"I insist, sir, as a Christian and a gentleman, that I be shaved," said the clergyman.

"I insist, sir, as the proprietor of this shop, that you get outside," replied Newport.

The next moment the clergyman found himself on the walk. He declares that the proprietor of the shop took a policeman's club from behind the door and threatened to strike him. Witnesses deny this.

The Rev. Gaskin immediately called upon Walter Franklin, justice of the peace, and asked for a warrant. Mr. Franklin told him what while he might have the basis for a civil action against Newport, it was unwise to stir up the matter, as it might weaken his influence in his church and the community.

The Rev. Gaskin said last night: "I regret very much that this thing should have happened to the President's own town. While I do not believe in the social equality of the races—that is, I do not believe in the social intermingling of the races—I do believe, with President Roosevelt, that honesty and decency should make all men equal, at least in public places. This affair, however, had nothing to do with the President, and I do not wish to connect him with it in any way. It is something that might have happened anywhere."

Deacon Thomas, leader of the Zion Church, was more pronounced in his views. "The President is our friend," he said, "and while we realize that he is willing to help us as a race, we regret very much that an affair like this should have taken place at his very door."

MINISTER OPERATED ON.

Rev. Mr. Cuthrell Believed to be Improving—Personals.

Rev. J. T. Cuthrell, pastor of West Point Methodist Church, recently stood up at St. Luke's Hospital. Mr. Cuthrell is now on the road to recovery, and will be able to take charge of his work in three or four days.

Rev. Dr. Hersman, of Union Theological Seminary, preached in Second Presbyterian Church on Dr. Cecil.

Tuckahoe Lodge Meets.

The first regular meeting of Tuckahoe Lodge, No. 181, I. O. O. F., was held at the J. O. U. M. Hall at Ridge Church Saturday evening July 10th, with the following officers in their respective stations: Sitting past Grand, J. B. Badenoch; N. G., William H. Yates; O. G., Charles E. Smith; Recording Secretary, P. W. Johnston; Financial Secretary, R. A. Smith; Treasurer, J. P. Badenoch; J. R. Chapman, W. S. Seay, Wardens; J. S. N. G. and P. R. Seay; L. S. N. G., A. G. Brown; R. S. N. G., R. H. Wade; R. S. N. G., Oliver; L. S. N. G., J. Urban; Outside Guard, H. H. Browning; Inside Guardian, C. W. Franklin.

The gospel tent meetings in progress at the tent in the park, between Reister and Randolph Streets, had an audience Sunday night larger than the seating capacity. The congregation sang themselves into the tent, willing to stand and listen to the earnest words of Rev. J. P. Atkins on the "Way to God."

These meetings are growing in attendance and interest. The Rev. H. P. Atkins will be in charge of the services every night during this week.

The tobacco trade of Richmond has received into its ranks a new concern in the person of W. D. Butler & Co., proprietors of the Stonevale warehouse, successors to the late George Haynes.

Mr. W. D. Butler, who is at the head of the concern, was associated with Mr. Haynes for many years. No one has been able to say whether he will continue to prosper and receive the patronage as it has done for so many years under the able management of the late Mr. Haynes.

The concern has leased the house and commenced business on the 30th of last month.

Knows Nothing of It.

Mr. Joseph P. Brady, deputy clerk of the United States District and Circuit Courts, was asked yesterday in regard to the effect that he would be materially advanced by a contemplated "take-up" in the Federal offices at that place. In reply Mr. Brady said unhesitatingly that there was absolutely nothing in the world in the rumor. It was certainly news to him, he added.

Sunday Selling Charged.

Officers Overby and Gossard allege that they were charged with selling beer, at Reister and Cary Streets, Sunday and bought drinks. The result was that the proprietor was reported for keeping a license on Sunday and selling liquor. The case will be called in the Police Court this morning.

The Monument Fund.

The fund for a monument to the late Police Inspector Shinsberger was started yesterday, and in a short while may be collected. The fund may be left at the office of the Chief of Police.
